

Sec. 212 DISTRICT AP.

(A) Intent. This district is intended to maintain for agricultural purposes those lands which because of their soil characteristics and other factors, are especially well suited for agricultural uses.

(B) Permitted Principal Uses. Agricultural production operations including crop cultivation, pastures, orchards, farmstead and similar uses, except feedlots, poultry farms and fur farms.

(C) Conditional Uses. Feedlots, poultry farms, fur farms and commercial kennels, provided that no such operation shall be established within one-quarter mile of any existing residence not on the premises.
