

Sec. 215 DISTRICT OS.

(A) Intent. To preserve as open space those lands which because of their soil, drainage or topographic characteristics, their lack of accessibility, or because they are important wildlife habitats, such as deer yards are not suitable for development.

(B) Permitted Principal Uses. Growing and harvesting of timber and bush fruit, and agricultural produce and wildlife management.

(C) Conditional Uses. Resorts, lodges, seasonal dwellings and other recreational uses, on lots of 20 acres or more, where such development can be accomplished without significant adverse environmental impact.
